

Status of Federally Designated Railway Stations - ONTARIO

Updated May 5, 2021

Location	Good Shape	Poor Shape	Notes
Alexandria	x		Still in use
Allendale	x		In use as GO Station
Aurora	x		In use as GO Station
Belleville	x		Next to new VIA train station, historic building not impacted
Brampton	x		In use as GO and VIA Station
Brantford	x		In use as GO and VIA Station
Carleton Place	x		No longer in use as train station but adapted for other purposes while maintain heritage character
Cartier			Remote location, hard to find info, no Google Maps
Casselman	x		In use as VIA Station
Chatham	x		In use as VIA Station
Cobourg	x		In use as VIA with new station built adjacent in 2010
Comber	x		https://windsorstar.com/news/local-news/comber-train-station-on-track-for-new-life
Ernestown		x	Abandoned for years, current owner unknown
Fort Frances		x	No longer in use
Galt (Cambridge)
Georgetown	x		In use as GO and VIA station
Guelph	x		Renovated and updated in 2017
Hamilton	x		West Harbour Go Station
Former Toronto, Hamilton and Buffalo Railway Station	x		In use by GO. Now called Hamilton Go Centre
Havelock	x		Now a pizza restaurant with building's historic features preserved
Hornepayne		x	Demolished in 2020 by CN
Huntsville	x		No longer in use as train station. Sold to private owners who will maintain historic building https://doppleronline.ca/huntsville/huntsville-train-station-a-year-later/
Kenora	x		Still in use for freight trains but not public
Kingston (Montreal Road)		x	Derelict for past 20 years or so. Added to National Trust Endangered Places List 2008.

Location	Good Shape	Poor Shape	Notes
Kitchener	x		Still in use by VIA
Leamington			No current info found
Maple	x		In use as GO Station
Markham	x		In use as GO Station
Nakina		x	Not currently used by VIA. OPP have an office in the building, but not sure used?
Newmarket	x		In use as GO Station
Niagara	x		In use by VIA
North Bay	x
Orillia			Sold to private developer in 2019. Future of station unclear
Ottawa	x		In use by VIA
Owen Sound	x		Adapted into restaurant. Awarded Lieutenant Governor Heritage Award in 2018
Parry Sound	x		In use by VIA
Port Hope	x		In use by VIA
Prescott	x		National Historic Site
Sarnia	x		In use by VIA
Schreiber	x
Searchmont		x	Searchmont Station Historical Society was formed in 2014 to preserve the railroad history of the community. Current core of station still exists.
Sioux Lookout	x		In use by VIA. Local museum moving out.
St Catharines	x		In use by VIA
St Mary's Junction			No longer in use. No immediate threat present
St Thomas	x		Home of the North America Railway Hall of Fame. Recently restored
Stratford	x		In use by VIA
Sudbury			No recent info found
Thunder Bay	?		Building has been vacant for several years
Toronto	x		In use by VIA and GO. Major renovation projects in recent years
Unionville	x		In use as a community centre and tourist attraction
White River	x		Roof solid. Looking for a use. Town Council engaged.
Woodstock	x		In use by VIA